WASHINGTON, March 30 .- The final vote on the Alabama bill, after the adoption of the substitute, by a vote of seventy-seven to fiftyfour, was one hundred and two to fifty-nine-a strict party vote. The order relieving General Hancock from command of the Fifth Military District, and assigning him to the command of the division of the Atlantic was promulgated to-day. Hancock is here, and his order assuming command will be issued to-morrow. His headquarters will be in this city. Fred. A. Johnson, with a petition signed by three thousand citizens of New Orleans, called on General Grant this morning. General Grant intends to refer the petition to General

The Impeachment Business.

WASHINGTON, March 30 .- After some preliminary business Chief Justice Chase entered the Senate and opened the court with the usual formalities. The journal was read, and Mr. Chase then said: "The managers will now proceed in support of the articles of impeachment." Butler spoke until four o'clock, and when he concluded the seats provided for the representatives were almost empty and the galleries were by no means crowded. Mr. Wilson then commenced his argument.

The evidence was entirely documentary, and was interrupted in the mide to of a consideration of the President's reasons for suspending Stanton by a motion to adjourn, which was carried.

Congressional.

WASHINGTON, March 30 .- IN THE House the New Jersey resolutions, withdrawing the assent of that State to the fourteenth constitutional amendment, were presented. Mr. Boutwell objected to its reception, as it was disrespectful in charging the House with usurpation.

Half-past twelve having arrived, the House went to the Senate Chamber. After their return, the New Jersey resolutions were, on motion, ordered to be returned to the person who presented them, as disrespectful and scandalous. Messrs. Halsey, Hill and Moore, of New Jersey, voting aye, and Mr. Haight no. from the Court of Claims was discussed and

The consideration of the bill concerning Representative Butler, of Tennessee, was resumed. His relief from political disabilities meets with earnest opposition.

After the adjournment of the Court of Impeachment, the Tax Conference Committee reported the whiskey clause so modified that frauds are punishable by fine and imprisonment. The penalty covers distillers, dealers and revenue officers, and imprisonment is made mandatory. No suit shall be dismissed or compromised without the consent of the Secretary of the Treasury and the Attorney-General. Lumber and flour are exempted from the wholesale tax: otherwise, there is no change. The report was adopted.

New England Methodist Episcopal Church.

Boston, March 30 .- During the session to day of the conference of the New England Methodist Episcopal Church Committee on the Course of the Country, resolutions were reported endorsing impeachment and eulogizing General Grant and Secretary Stanton for their patriotic conduct. DARLINGTON.

The Union Republican nominations in this district are as follows : Senator .- B. F. Whittemore, white, Representatives-John Boston colored: Jordan Lang, colored; George Holliman, white: Alfred Rush, colored.

BARNWELL.

At a meeting of citizens, held at the courtouse on the 24th instant, a call was issued to all the citizens of the district to assemble at the courthouse on the first Monday in April to take into consideration the present condition of the country, and to devise the best means of escape from impending troubles. The following gentlemen were appointed delegates to the Columbia Convention : Hon. W. Peronneau Finley, Major G. B. Lartigue, Mr. Joseph Erwin, Mr. H. M. Richardson, Colonel Beni Kirkland, General Johnson Hagood, Mr. I. M. Hutson, Mr. R. Wilson, and Mr. Robert Ald-

Our courteous correspondent Q. E. D., sends the following report of a Radical meeting, held in Blackville on Friday :

A meeting of the Radical party was held on Friday evening, at the Market Hall, in this place, and was addressed at some length by Mr. C. P. Leslie, in a speech on the political topics of the day, characterized by great moderation and much ability. The audience was very small, being composed of about fifty ne-groes, and some dozen or more of the white residents. We must do Mr. Leslie the justice to say, that his remarks were eminently calculated to promote that good feeling and forbearance which are so necessary for our future welfare and happiness. He glorified the late convention immensely, and dilated at great length on the magnanimous spirit that characterized its doings. As a proof that the negroes did not desire to rule the State, nor to override the white reas the resided.

recent nomination for State officers.

He told us what great things General Scott designed to do for this State when he should be elected Governor; how Northern capital would flow into the State, and its now almost valueless lands would rise rapidly in value under the stimulus of wealth and immigration. On this point Mr. Leslie grew eloquent. Mr. Leslie claimed that his famous homestead measure was destined to work out the salvation of thousands over whom ruin was now impending; but he did not particularly allude to the IN THE SENATE, the bill regarding appeals ing; but he did not particularly allude to the ing; but he did not particularly allude to the way in which debtors were to escape the difficulties of an ex post facto law.

The next speaker introduced to the meeting was "the Hon.(1) something Hayne"—ciarum et venerabule nomen—one of the delegates from this district in the late convention. The honorable gentleman commenced by a pious reference to the Bible for the truth of the fact that God med all men "free and county" but we God made all men "free and equal:" but we rather think his ideas were somewhat obfus-cated, and that he has somehow contrived to get the Bible and the Declaration of Independ get the Bible and the Declaration of Independ-ence tangled together in his brain. In refer-ring, somewhat spitefully, to the Democratic party, he developed a wonderful discovery in the way of chronology which rather startled us. He assured his hearers that that party had ruled this country, and that in a most abominable manner, for the last two hundred and forty years; and that it was therefore time and forty years; and that it was therefore time for them to give way to better men—to a party of progress! as he styled the Republican party. The honorable gentleman so far forgot his usual urbanity and elegance of expression as to refer to that distinguished Carolinian, ex-Governor Perry, as "ole Ben Perry!" and "Ben Perry!" But the genius of elecution all at once forsook the honorable gentleman, who suddenly boggled in his speech, and, promising his audience further enlightenment at the hands of the Hon. Mr. Elliott, took his seat.

"The Hon. Mr. Elliott, of Aikon," was the next and last speaker announced. He began by saying that Mr. Leslic had informed them that the present meeting had been called by usual urbanity and elegance of expression as to refer to that distinguished Carolinian, ex-Governor Perry, as "ole Ben Perry!" and "Ben Perry!" But the genius of elecution all at once forsook the honorable gentleman, who suddenly boggled in his speech, and, promising his audience further enlightenment at the hands of the Hon. Mr. Elliott, took his seat.

"The Hon. Mr. Elliott, of Aikon," was the next and last speaker announced. He began by saying that Mr. Leslie had informed them that the present meeting had been called by his (Elliott's) request. "That is true," said Mr. Elliott. The speaker added that it had not been his intention then and there to deliver a speech; but that as he had been called upon, and always feeling it a duty, &c., &c., he would offor a few remarks; whereupon the speaker made a temperate speech upon the whole—glorified his party a great deal—praised the magnanimity of his race, and so on; but spoke in a very offensive way of the public men of our State, whom he called "old fogies," "fellows"—"these fellows" who were seeking to run back the car of triumphant progress into the misty glooms of a darkoned age, &c., but that car would go onward in spite of them, and South Carolina world one day be restored to "all her primitive glory!"

He announced that on Thursday next a meet-stored to "all her primitive glory!"

He announced that on Thursday next a practing would be held in this town, at which many speakers would be present from various parts of the State, and among others, Colonel F. J. Moses, whom he characterized as a distinguished son of South Carolina. The negroes were then informed that the 14th, 15th and 16th of next month would be the time for election of State officers; and as the meeting was about to break up, Leslie's voice was heard above the din, charging the negroes to turn out, and if they didn't and lost the election by default, were too old or blind or crippled to come, they must bring them in on their backs, or tumble them into carts—any way! And so the

-The Jissouri Legislature has given Sambo another slight. Pending the bill to incorporate a State Agricultural College, Mr. Park offered to amend by adding, "and whereas the colored people of Boone county have petitioned the Legislature to locate the Agriculral College at Columbia, in connection with the State University, and whereas these peoderived from an Agricultural College and need the blessing of an education, more perhaps than any other class of persons, therefore, colored students shall have all the privileges of tuition and degrees in the University." On motion, the amendment was rejected, ayes 19,

HORRIBLE RESULTS OF FAMINE.—An Algeria paper, the Echo d'Oran, has the following: "No historical famine has presented to the saudened eyes of humanity so horrible a spectacle as that which is at this moment to be observed among the Arabs. Two days ago a native woman in the neighborhood of Misserghin killed her daughter, twelve years of age, and gave the flesh to her other children and partook of it herself! The legal authorities, hearing of the circumstance, at once proceeded to the spot, and on entering the hut occupied by these campibals, learned that the heart, the liver, and the interior portions of the correct section. the interior perions of the corpse were eaten, because they could not keep. The mother was occupied in salting the flesh, cut up into pieces, exactly as is done with pork."

THINGS IN WASHINGTON.

GENERAL GRANT WILL ISSUE AN ORDER ASSIGN-ING HANCOCK TO COMMAND THE NEW DEPART-MENT-THE PRESIDENT'S REPLY TO THE RESO-LUTION INQUIRING UNDER WHAT STATUTE HE FORMED THE NEW DISTRICT.

A Washington telegram to the Richmond Dispatch, dated Saturday night, says:

The order assigning General Hancock to the command of the Department of the Atlantic was prepared to-day by General Grant, and will be promulgated on Monday next. No special order relieving Hancock of the command of the Fifth Military District is to be issued, but, by reason of his assignment to the command of the next department, he is relieved of his former command. Hancock's headquarters are to be in this city.

Mr. Johnson says this assignment of Hancock is in pursuance of a purpose he formed art. Johnson says this assignment of Inni-cock is in pursuance of a purpose he formed shortly after the declination of Sherman and Thomas, and immediately upon hearing of Hancock's desire to be relieved from the com-mand of the Fifth District.

In answer to the Edmonds resolution, adopted in Senate to-day, inquiring if the President has established a new district, and if so, under what statute, Mr. Johnson will reply in substance that he derives his authority for the formation of the Department of the Atlantic from the same source as he and his predeces-sors have heretofore in the formation of military districts and departments-viz: from the legal authority conferred upon him as com-mander-in-chief of the army.

THE REFUSAL OF THE SENATE TO ALLOW TIME TO THE PRESIDENT'S COUNSEL-VIEWS OF A CON-SERVATIVE SENATOR—STEVENS AND SCHENCK. The Washington correspondent of the Baltimore Gazette, in his dispatch of Friday night

The action of the Senate in refusing counsel time to prepare for the defence of the Presi-dent is regarded as not only unfair to the Presi-ident, but positively insulting to the distin-guished gentlemen who had stated upon their rofessional reputation that the time asked for

was actually necessary.

The result has been that Mr. Evarts was forced to seek his own library in New York, and will not return until Monday morning, while the rest of the counsel are laboring here on the different points involved in the case. Thus they are to be forced to trial on Monday, without concert of action, or concertually for without concert of action or opportunity for

The discussion in the House on the Supreme Court bill, vetoed by the President, was re-stricted to one hour, and that hour Mr. Wilson parcelled out to suit himself. Then the bill was passed over the veto by the same vote which it was originally sneaked through that body.

Thus legislation progresses here—each act of Congress being worse, if possible, than the one which preceded it. The gravest legislation is attended with mocking jeers of Radicals over a helpless minority.

A Conservative Senator, noted for his caution as well as his great ability, declared to-night that there was no escape of the country from its present political bondage, excepting in revolution, which he regards as near at hand. Thad. Stevens and Schenck had a lively spat to-day, which varied the monotony of congressional proceedings. sional proceedings. Stevens still clings to the idea of confisca tion, and he asked the chairman if the Ways and Means Committee had made any provision for lightening the burthens of taxation at the North by providing for a general confiscation at the South. Schenck tartly replied : "My committee has charge of taxation; confiscation we leave to the Committee on Reconstruction." Stevens: "I asked the gentleman a question, and he answers with a sneer.' Schenck again replied in a boistcrous tone recalling to the minds of many the fable of the

It is understood that Stevens will bring in another scheme for general confiscation before the session closes, should death not arrest him before he completes his plans.

Jefferson Davis.

Underwood's mongrel grand jury, has after an incubation of more than six months, at last tched a new indictment against ex-Pre dent Davis. It covers more than fifty pages of foolscap. The indictment states that in 1861 he armed and equipped troops for the purpose of levy-ing war against the United States; that he took fcrcible possession of the city of Rich-mond, and excluded therefrom the forces of the United States: that he armed and equipped military forces for the purpose of levying war against the United States in the States of Vir-ginia, North Carolina, South Carolina, Geor-gia, Florida, Alabama, Mississippi, Louis-iana, Texas, Arkansas, Tennessee and Missouri, and that he gave to the said forces in formation, counsel and advice, maliciously son of resistance to the execution of the laws of the United States, and the interruption of the ordinary course of judicial proceedings, process for the commencement of any action, civil or criminal, against the said Jefferson Davis, or for his arrest, could not be served, and the said Jefferson Davis could not, by reason of such resistance of the laws, and such son of such resistance of the laws, and such interruption of such judicial proceedings be a rested, or served with process for the commencement of any action, civil or criminal, within the intent and meaning of the statute of the United States, in such case made and provided.

AT A YOUNG LADY RETURNING TO her country home, after a sojourn of a few months in the city, was hardly recognized by her 'riends. In place of a course, rustic, flushed face, she had t soft ruby con plexion of almost marble smooth ness, and instead twenty-three she really appeared but eighteen. Upon inquiry as to the cause of so great a change, she plan ly told them that she used the CIRCASSIAN BALM, at d considered it an invaluable acquisition to any lady's tellet. By its use any Lady or Gentlemen can improve their personal appearance an nundredfold. It is simple in its combination, as Nature nerselt is simple, yet ansur passed in its efficacy in drawing impurities from, also hearing, cleansing and beautifying the skin and complexion. By its direct action on the cuticle it draws from it all its impurities, kindly healing the same, and leaving the surface as Nature intended it should be-clear, soft, smoote and beautiful. Price $1, sent by Mail or Express, on receipt of an order, W. L. CLARE & CO., Chemists,
